

PASS National Officer Election Results

Today, the Professional Aviation Safety Specialists, AFL-CIO (PASS) announced the results of its 2024 national officer elections. PASS represents 11,000 employees of the Federal Aviation Administration and Department of Defense.

Running unopposed, National President David J. Spero won his second term in that position. National Secretary-Treasurer Carlos Aguirre was reelected for his third term on the PASS Executive Board.

The five regional vice presidents for PASS were all reelected to their current positions on the Executive Board by the members in their respective regions (they did not run as a slate):

Region I Vice President: Robert Seagrave

Region II Vice President: Douglas Lowe

Region III Vice President: Raymond Baggett

Region IV Vice President: Benjamin Struck

Region V Vice President: Tamara Rose

The secret ballot election was conducted during August by the firm TrueBallot and the ballots were counted today at a hotel in suburban Washington, D.C. The results were certified by TrueBallot and the union's Tally Committee.

The new term for all PASS officers will begin on October 1, 2024.
